THE SECRETARY OF STATE HAS HIS HANDS FULL.

—The Evening World, New York.

TO THE DEVIL'S ADVOCATE.

Mr. Thurston Pays His Compliments to Palmer.

Latter Hired by the New York Post to Write Anti-Annexation Material—

Treasury Misrepresentation.

MR. EDITOR:—When it is proposed that the Catholic Church shall canonize a man and place his name upon the catalogue of saints, in order to prevent unworthy additions to that honorable list it is customary to select a cardinal of ability whose duty it is to marshal and present to the Pope all evidence and possible reasons why such distinction should not be conferred.

The man who is assigned to this disagreeable duty is appropriately designated as "the devil's advocate."

I was informed some little time since that the New York Evening

Post had sent Mr. Julius Palmer to Honolulu, not to write an impartial account of the Hawaiian revolution,

but to "work up material against annexation."

Whether such was the case I did not know; but in this morning's

ADVERTISER I find over Mr. Palmer's own signature the statement that his mission is to "photograph and exhibit at their worst" the conditions in Hawaii, and says "there is the soundest reason for doing this," because "if a man wishes to marry my sister it is my duty to ascertain not the best but the very worst which can be said of his character. Your Government avows its intention to make alliance with mine," and that he is engaged in working up the argument to prevent it.

I feel under deep obligations to Mr. Palmer for thus openly declaring himself to be the devil's advocate, and that he is professedly presenting the blackest possible phase of Hawaiian conditions, for the express purpose of preventing the elevation of Hawaii to the honorable position of a member of the American Union. He comes out into the open and makes his declaration instead of skulking in the shadows and masquerading as an impartial investigator who is giving the result of his researches from the standpoint of fairness and truth after considering all of the conditions.

I hope that the "N. Y. Post" will be as fair as Mr. Palmer is, and state the head of each of Mr. Palmer's articles.

"Take notice that there is another side to the statements hereunder made, and a more or less satisfactory reply and explanation to each of the charges therein made."

This is simply the plea of Julius A. Palmer, the devil's advocate, appointed to write up and report to Pope Godkin the "very worst" that can be said about Hawaii, to be used hereafter as ammunition against annexation.

I take the liberty of reminding Mr. Palmer, however, that it is a rule that the devil's advocate must confine himself to the strict truth. I have not had the pleasure of seeing all of Mr. Palmer's valuable reports, but in one of his telegraphed dispatches published about the first of this month there was contained the statement in effect that the balance of cash shown by the Hawaiian treasury is a purely fictitious one, it being simply a deposit to secure payment of outstanding certificates of deposit.

There is very little excuse for this error, as the treasury statement is published in detail each week, showing in separate accounts the amount on deposit to secure the outstanding certificates of deposit and the other moneys in the treasury.

On the 18th of March last, about the time Mr. Palmer's dispatch was written showing the "very worst" that could be said about the finances of Hawaii, the treasury statement for the week ending March 16, 1895, shows that on March 16, 1895, there was then cash in the treasury in addition to the special deposit securing outstanding certificates of deposit as follows:

Loan funds.....$ 40,074.91

Cash in Post Office Savings Bank.....131,167.54

Road moneys.....39,064.22

School moneys.....6,176.60

Royal School and St. Louis College baseball clubs will compete this morning at 10 o'clock on the League grounds.

SOLDIERS, ON WITH THE DANCE

Regimental Ball Last Night a Most Successful Event.

DRILL SHED DAILY DECORATED.

Fleeting Hours Passed by Merry Torpichoreans—Refreshments and Bountiful Repast—Prominent People in Attendance—Enchanting Music, Etc.

Credit to whom credit is due must be said of those who made a success of the regimental ball given in the Drill Shed last night. The efforts of the men who labored so assiduously were rewarded with perhaps the most brilliant event of the kind ever given on the Islands.

The Drill Shed was a blaze of light, and the graceful movements of the dancers, coupled with the sweet strains from the orchestra, made the whole an entrancing scene.

The entrance to the Drill Shed was kept closed from the inquisitive gaze of watchers on the outside, by skillfully arranged Hawaiian flags. Running from this on both sides were the flags of various nations, draped prettily over and on the partitions of the different company quarters. Artistically set in among these was an abundance of palms and ferns, giving a tropical appearance to the surroundings. At the back was a curtain formed of a large American flag joined to the Hawaiian ensign, and arranged at the point of union so as to form a graceful doorway to the dining room in the extreme rear. Just above this doorway was suspended a large background of ferns, on which was worked in coropsis blossoms, the word "Aloha."

Hanging from the cross beams were a great number of small flags, pennants and ensigns of various forms. The arrangement of the electric lights among these was a matter of comment. The wires were lengthened or shortened to various lengths, casting silvery shadows here and there, and lighting up the flags, pennants and ensigns. Eight strings of Japanese lanterns led from various points to one common center of the hall. These, although unlighted, were shown to great advantage by the electric lights.

Liquid refreshments were served in a place set apart at the upper left-hand corner of the hall.

Professor Berger's band was stationed on a temporary raised platform next the quarters of Company D, and furnished delightful music during the evening.

The floor was crowded during each dance and enjoyment seemed to reign supreme.

At 11 o'clock the dining room was thrown open and a bountiful spread prepared by Caterer Chapman was partaken of with relish.

Among the 600 guests were President and Mrs. Dole, Minister and Mrs. Hatch, Miss Severance, Mesdames S. M. Damon, Winslow, Alfred Magoon, Curry, Misses Curry, Hoeler, Pratt, Kauffman, Harnden, the Misses Hartwell, Captain Cotton, Captain Cochrane and Assistant Surgeon Guest, of the Philadelphia; Minister J. A. King, Alfred Magoon and Allen Towle.

The different committees discharged their onerous duties in a most satisfactory manner, reflecting credit on themselves and rendering valuable assistance in making the occasion what it was in every sense—a success.

Japanese Injured.

News was received at the police station early last night from Wai-anne that four Japanese employed on the railway extension had been seriously injured. The men were engaged in blasting and a premature explosion resulted in two of the Japanese almost entirely losing their eyesight, the others sustaining severe injuries about the head and body. The men started to Honolulu on foot from Wai-anne shortly after 8 o'clock, and up to going to press had not reached the city, rendering further particulars impossible.

Ashford Will Go.

V. V. Ashford has recovered sufficiently to attend to business matters. He was at his office yesterday, though under surveillance of special officer Nat Goodwin. Mr. Ashford will leave for the Coast by the next Australia.

A fine Shenandoah colt from the Kapapala ranch was expected to arrive by the Kinau for Dr. Mon-sarrat, but owing to rough weather at Hilo the animal could not be taken aboard.
